Students gain both theoretical and practical knowledge from our qualified lecturers and guests lecturers who have ample of experience as marketing and business professionals in the industry. In addition, the innovation habit will be developed through course assessment that put weight on content comprehension and innovation. The innovation thinking, or commonly referred to Design Thinking on the other hand, will be developed through collaboration with BINUS INTERNATIONAL’S SCHOOL OF ART & DESIGN. Students are required to translate their selected innovative ideas into a visible design to comprehend the end-to-end innovation process. This innovation thinking approach is implemented in the teaching, learning, and assessment process of several courses throughout the program.

Employability and Career Support
The four year marketing program at BINUS INTERNATIONAL will provide sufficient skills and confidence for our students to enter the real business world. Equipped with our Marketing and Management degree, students will have a wide range of career opportunities in a variety of industry. Over the past decade, marketing has continued to gain prominence as a dominant orientation in business and as a process deployed by all departments within an organization. Therefore, the role of marketing professionals is vital in any type or size of companies, as it acts as connectors between customers and companies, including connecting customers to the product or service and to the financial accountability. Some example of marketing professions that students could aim are Brand Manager, Product Manager, Brand Executive, Marketing Executive, Marketing Consultant, Market Research Analyst, Director of Sales, and many more. Despite being a marketing professional, students can also developed their own business and become entrepreneurs.

BINUS INTERNATIONAL also provides career support for students by disseminating information on the latest job vacancies and internships. This support service can be accessed from www.binuscareer.com.
