

English Literature

Introduction

English has been widely accepted as one key element for success. Graduates with eloquence in English and well acquaintance in technology are coveted qualities for further victory in the global competition. With the strenuous ambition to prepare its graduates as key players in professional and academic endeavors, English Study Program at BINUS UNIVERSITY aims to provide best learning experience. Such experience is gained by equipping its students with language and literature studies while cultivating capability of thinking in an analytical, logical and creative manner.

In addition to academic activity, the English Study Program includes small-scale research and creative projects project. The department also takes an active part in writing articles for the Language and Literature Journal (published twice a year). The research conducted during the English Study Program includes investigation of Language, Literature, Culture, Linguistics, and Teaching.

Each student is prepared to become a person with high integrity and good character. To attain this, the English Study Program is designed to meet the demands of the market and industry for skilled and qualified English graduates. As such, the English Study Program aims to achieve the following objectives.

Vision

A world class English Department for its language, literary, culture, and multidisciplinary studies for globally competitive graduates equipped with skills in technology and the ability to produce inspiring creative products and research.

Mission

The mission of English Department is to foster and empower society by :

1. Providing creative, multidisciplinary, and innovative learning and teaching approaches, as well as enhancing global prudence, creative mindset, and academic virtues in creating leaders for the global community.
2. Widening students' and faculties' multidisciplinary perspectives on the current research in language, literary, and culture and practical knowledge to create creative works.
3. Preparing students for successful future careers in various academic, business-related and creative professions, with a focus on analytical thinking, entrepreneurial, empathy, technology use, innovative and collaborative mindsets.
4. Catering the needs of society in their pursue for skills and competence in English, multicultural communication, and professional development.

Prospective Career of the Graduates

With the above-mentioned skills and knowledge, the English graduate is able to follow a career in:

1. Educational sector (language instructor, education planner)
2. Translating and interpreting field
3. Creative and publishing industries (novelist, copywriter, content writer, travel writer)
4. Civil service and Government Departments (e.g. Department of Foreign Affairs; Post and Telecommunications; Department of Commerce; Department of Finance)
5. Private sector (Human Resources; Public Relations; Training; Advertising)

6. Diplomatic service (Cultural; Education; Public Relations)
7. Self-employment: (Entrepreneur in Language school; translation bureau; and hospitality industry)
8. Post-graduate studies (S2)
9. Media and Journalism

Curriculum

In order to equip graduates with the above-mentioned skills, the English Study Program curriculum:

1. Combines an academic atmosphere with active study so that graduates have a solid knowledge and reliable skills in Language, Literature and Culture.
2. Develops the knowledge and skills of the students in a foreign language discipline.
3. Develops the attitude and critical reasoning of students.
4. Encourages the students to develop an attitude of independent learning which will continue into their professional lives and in their approach to life-long learning.
5. Provides students with the knowledge of research techniques so that those who wish to will have the skills to study at post-graduate level.
6. Provides choices for students to think, act, and research in interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary perspectives

In line with the above-mentioned skills, the English Study Program is responsive to the requirements of the global workplace. The curriculum of the English Study Program attempts to respond to the needs of industry and business, and as such it is categorized into groups.

Core Group

This group is designed to equip the students with the ability to use English for communication purposes, and consists of grammar, listening, speaking, writing and reading from the basic to advanced level in order that the graduates have sufficient knowledge and skills to enter the world of work.

Character Building Group

Character Building courses aim to build the character of the students in order that they will be able to interact properly in society and engage well in the workplace. In addition, the courses prepare the students to have the ability to analyze the needs of the market and their preferred profession. The graduates will also be provided with the ability to effectively and efficiently plan and organize their work well.

Stream Group

The stream group that is often referred to as Professional Enrichment in Language Group comprises three main streams, namely: Creative Writing and Media, English as Foreign Language Learning, English for Business Professionals, and English for Specific Academic purposes. The students will specialize in one of the streams and will comprise portfolios in preparing for their future in the preferred field of professions. This way the students will not only have the knowledge but also the opportunities to apply that knowledge in their preferred field. This streaming pathway will align with the Internship program, provided for the students to prepare their portfolios.

Minor and Free Electives Group

Students of the English department is given the opportunities to take minor and free electives courses offered by other departments at Binus university. Some of the minors that English department students can take are Digital Ecosystem, Human Digital in Workplace, Sustainable Development, Cross Cultural Communication, Interactive & Users Experience Design, Data Analytics, and Robotic Process Automation. The list of Free Elective courses students can take is available as the appendix of this document. Students of the English department are allowed to take up to 20 credits for their Minor and Free Elective courses.

Enrichment Programs + Final / Exit Project

As an integral process in the curriculum, students are required to implement their knowledge and skills, through Internship program. The Internship program has been deemed successful in shaping the qualification of the graduates while keeping them grounded to the needs of the wider community. Students can choose to do Internship, Study Abroad, Research, Community Service, and Business Start Up.

Foundations of research are provided since the first year of the study and are lead up to more focused and evidence-based small-scale research towards the later years of the study. In the final year, students are required to write an extensive research-based paper in the forms of Academic Article Publication, Skripsi, or a Creative Product, as final milestone toward the completion of the degree. It is possible for students to their final project independently or collaborative with other students.
