In line with the above-mentioned skills, the English Study Program is responsive to the requirements of the global workplace. The curriculum of the English Study Program attempts to respond to the needs of industry and business, and as such it is categorized into groups.

Core Group

This group is designed to equip the students with the ability to use English for communication purposes, and consists of grammar, listening, speaking, writing and reading from the basic to advanced level in order that the graduates have sufficient knowledge and skills to enter the world of work.

Character Building Group

Character Building courses aim to build the character of the students in order that they will be able to interact properly in society and engage well in the workplace. In addition, the courses prepare the students to have the ability to analyze the needs of the market and their preferred profession. The graduates will also be provided with the ability to effectively and efficiently plan and organize their work well.

Stream Group

The stream group that is often referred to as Professional Enrichment in Language Group comprises three main streams, namely: Creative Writing and Media, English as Foreign Language Learning, English for Business Professionals, and English for Specific Academic purposes. The students will specialize in one of the streams and will comprise portfolios in preparing for their future in the preferred field of professions. This way the students will not only have the knowledge but also the opportunities to apply that knowledge in their preferred field. This streaming pathway will align with the Internship program, provided for the students to prepare their portfolios.

Minor and Free Electives Group
